SUMMER WORKSHOPS IN THE MATERIALS OF NEGRO CULTURE--"To expand the informed teaching of subjects relating to the American Negro and his heritage, the National Endowment for the Humanities will join certain universities in sponsoring workshops that will increase the familiarity of college and university teachers with these materials."

Chancellor John S. Rendleman has indicated that he will pay the necessary fees and travel expenses for faculty members who attend the workshops. Any faculty member who is interested in attending one of the workshops should contact his Dean for additional information and for nomination for attendance.

The workshops are as follows:
