MEMO TO: The University Community
FROM: Earl Lazerson
SUBJECT: United Way Campaign

The United Way Campaign at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville begins on November 1, 1983. The effort has been planned and organized by a Steering Committee consisting of SIUE faculty and staff. Volunteers will soon be contacting you asking for your help.

This year, the Steering Committee has initiated a pilot series of group sessions intended to better inform employees on United Way services and answer any questions. I would encourage you to consider attending one of these short sessions scheduled for the following times and locations:

Tuesday, November 1
10:30 a.m. - Communications Building - Green Room
12:00 Noon - School of Dental Medicine - CPA 1
12:30 p.m. - Building III - Room 1201
2:30 p.m. - Science Building - Room 2224

Wednesday, November 2
8:00 a.m. - Supporting Services Building - Carpenter Shop Area
9:00 a.m. - Supporting Services Building - Carpenter Shop Area
11:00 a.m. - University Center - U.C. Dogwood Room
   (CAMPAIGN KICKOFF - Volunteer Training)

Payroll deduction pledges aid the elderly, the infirm, the handicapped, the disabled and the unemployed. Your contribution can make a significant difference in the lives of thousands of people.

Thank you for your consideration.
