The staff of University Exhibits has developed a portable photographic exhibit which is available for faculty and staff members to use at conferences, public events, and special meetings. The exhibit consists of black-and-white prints mounted on aluminum panels. Special subjects can be added to the set on request, if sufficient advance notice is given for the preparation of prints. The unit has been fitted into a medium-sized suitcase and is easily handled. Rex Karnes, Coordinator of University Exhibits, arranges the scheduling of this exhibit. (Telephone: 186-3-2276).
