Parking Lot B (near the University Center) is now open, with 245 paved parking spaces. The charge is 10 cents for the first hour and 25 cents for each additional hour. The lot is open to all.

Students, faculty and staff using Lot 9 are reminded that the lot is to be used by them for infrequent contingencies, but cannot be used continuously to avoid purchase of a parking decal.

Each building in the academic core has a building engineer, with someone on duty 24 hours a day every day of the year. Individuals needing assistance can contact a building engineer by calling the following numbers:
