EDWARDSVILLE BULLETIN

for Faculty and Staff of Southern Illinois University

May 18, 1970

With the approval of the Board of Trustees and at the request of Chancellor John S. Rendleman, a one-day moratorium devoted to problems of war, racism and violence will be held Monday, May 18, on the Edwardsville campus. This will be followed by a series of convocations on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday dealing with the same issues.

During the moratorium and during the time of the convocations, classes will be dismissed so that the entire University community can participate. The normal class schedule will be observed Tuesday through Saturday, except during the convocations.

The moratorium and the convocations are planned to introduce reason, critical reflection and a mutually constructive exchange of views in keeping with the nature of the University.

All administrative, business and service functions of the University will continue as usual. Those employees who wish to attend any of the moratorium or convocation activities on campus should obtain permission from their immediate superior.

The moratorium events Monday, May 18, include:

9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. - Panel discussions on racism in the University Center Ballroom, the Communications Building Theater and the auditorium of the Science Building.

12:30 p.m. - Memorial service sponsored by the Black Student Association.

The convocation schedule:

Tuesday, May 19, 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., Problems of Violence

Wednesday, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., Problems of War

Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., What Have We Learned?

Thursday, 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., What Can We Do?
