Edwardsville Bulletin

To the Faculty and Staff of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville

Vol. 9, No. 15

March 3, 1977

Memo To: The University Community
From: Earl Lazerson
Subject: Revised Winter Quarter Final Examination Schedule

There has been concern expressed recently about making up at least one day of Monday classes lost during the current quarter because of weather and the February 21 observance of Washington's birthday. In addition, there were no Monday classes on January 3 because of registration. Academic Deans and Directors have been consulted regarding this matter, and there is general agreement that a day of Monday classes should be recovered through revision of the final examination schedule.

Attached is a copy of the revised Winter Quarter Final Examination Schedule. Basically, the revision involved moving each day's exam schedule one day later, i.e., those examinations originally scheduled for Monday, March 14, have been shifted to Tuesday, March 15; the Tuesday exams to Wednesday, etc. Notable exceptions are:

1. The examinations originally scheduled for Friday, March 18, at 12:20 p.m. have been moved to Thursday, March 17, at 2:20 p.m.
2. Examinations for all classes beginning at 3:30 p.m. are scheduled for 2:20 p.m. on Wednesday, March 16.
3. Examinations for evening and Saturday classes will be administered at their usual times.
4. The usual kinds of examination conflicts, plus any that may be engendered by this change, will receive special handling, and specific notice of resolution will be sent the instructors involved by the Academic Scheduling Office (extension 3087).

If missed coursework has already been "made up," classes scheduled for Monday, March 14, may be dismissed at the discretion of the faculty member.

Exceptions to the revised examination schedule, unless cleared in advance through the Academic Scheduling Office, will result in conflicts in room assignments.
