SUBJECT: Career Network '99 Employment and Volunteer Fair – March 17

The annual Career Network '99 Employment and Volunteer Fair will be held in the Morris Center on Wednesday, March 17, 1999, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Faculty are asked to encourage students to attend by announcing it in their classes. This fair is a joint effort among the Career Development Center, the Student Leadership Development Program, Blackburn College, and Greenville College.

More than 100 local and national employers and volunteer organizations are represented at this annual spring event. Viewed as the most comprehensive career fair in the region, it has something for everyone, including volunteer, internship, and cooperative education opportunities as well as opportunities for our graduating students and alumni. I ask that you take a few moments to stop by and support this year's Career Network '99 Employment and Volunteer Fair.
